ALETHEA CARMER

b. Jan. 23, 1767. d. Sept. 18, 1828.

William Hill was born in Ballycastle, County Antrim, Ireland, the son of Rev. Robert Hill and his wife, Sarah Stewart.

He came to America about 1777 and settled in New York City, living for a time at 119 Front St. and later on Broad St.

In 1812 he was elected a vestryman of Trinity Church, resigning March 9, 1818—see Trinity Church Records 1791-1826.

He was for years a successful merchant: later on he embarked on some unfortunate business enterprises, and lost the greater part of his property by foreclosing of mortgages: among these mortgages was one held by his brother-in-law, Robert Lenox, covering land now in Central Park, running to about Park Ave., and from 68th Street to 74th Street.

After his business reverses he retired to his country seat at East Chester: he attended the historic old church, St. Paul's, and was a vestryman for several years.

He was buried in his vault in St. Paul's churchyard.
